STOP YOUR CHATTERING, CHILD! BEFORE I SILENCE YOU FOR GOOD!
BENJAMIN, I'M TIRED OF WATCHING THIS BIRD ON THE MAGIC VISION BOX. LET'S POWER UP THE MACHINE.
With all six heirs here, it should take only a small portion of your powers. Just touch each other and say the magic incantation I taught you all and I'll handle the rest.
IS IT GONNA HURT?
It shouldn't. If it was painful, I would have warned you.
ARE YOU GONNA CHANGE WHEN YOU HAVE POWER? ARE YOU STILL GONNA BE MY FRIEND?
Yes, I'll change. But no matter what shape I take or what powers I have, I will still be your friend.

POP!
WAS THAT SUPPOSED TO HAPPEN?
I don't think so. It's been a while since-

THAT'S IT! I'M AS LOYAL A SERVANT AS ANYONE COULD ASK FOR!
BUT THERE IS A TIME TO SAY, 'THAT'S A GIANT MONSTER. RETREAT AND TRY AGAIN LATER.'
NO! STOP THEM! DESTROY THEM!

WOW.
BENJAMIN!
YOU'RE A MAGIC MAGICIAN MAN!
I'm... something, that's for sure.
I take it then that you like my new appearance?
OF COURSE! WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME YOUR NEW FORM WOULD BE SO TALL AND FANCY?!
RUMBLE...

There are still a few ravens below us, those who didn't evacuate because of the fire. A few were injured by the machine, but there's no fatalities.
WHAT ARE THEY STILL DOING HERE? WHO HANGS AROUND AFTER A GIANT MACHINE RISES OUT OF THE GROUND?
The raven's forcing them to stay and fight. He'd risk the lives of his followers to stop us.
This ends NOW.

ARE WE MOVING?
Yes.
THEN WHY AREN'T WE BUMPING AROUND?
The machine has its own internal gravity. No matter how it moves, passengers remain upright.
ARE YOU GONNA NEED MORE MAGIC?
The power boost from the heirs was enough to rejuvenate the ship's own energy systems. Once awakened, the ship can power itself for years.
CAN YOU FLY? LIKE YOU DID BEFORE YOU CRASHED?
The damage sustained is too great for flight without replacement parts that haven't been in production for centuries.
WHERE ARE WE GOING?
I'm not sure.
